NOTICE OF QUESTIONS FOR HEARING

17 TO ALL PARTIES AND THEIR ATTORNEYS OF RECORD, PLEASE TAKE NOTICE
18 OF THE FOLLOWING QUESTIONS FOR THE HEARING SCHEDULED ON JANUARY 24,
19 2022 at 9:30 A.M. The Court intends to address the questions below at the hearing. The Court 20 advises the parties that it will not accept written answers to these questions.

21 The parties shall be prepared to address the following questions at the hearing:

- 22 (1) In his motion for default judgment, Plaintiff states that he “lives is [sic] in this 23 geographical area on a constant and on-going basis.” (Dkt. No. 13-1.) In his declaration, Plaintiff states that he is “in this area on a regular and ongoing basis . .
24 . .” (Dkt. No. 13-4, ¶ 7.) Where does Plaintiff live? To what is he referring in 25 talking about “this geographical area”? Does Plaintiff live in this “area” or just 26 visit? If he just visits, how frequently does he visit?
27
(2) Under the burden-shifting approach adopted by the Ninth Circuit, Plaintiff bears 28 the plaintiff bears the initial burden of plausibly showing that a proposal for removing a barrier is readily achievable. Lopez v. Catalina Channel Express, Inc., 974 F.3d 1030, 1038 (9th Cir. 2020) (“plaintiffs must plausibly show how the cost of removing the architectural barrier at issue does not exceed the benefits under the

1 circumstances"). In his motion, while Plaintiff discusses this legal standard, he
2 does not discuss any of the facts. In fact, Plaintiff does not even state what
3 accommodation he requests, let alone make any showing that the accommodation
4 would not exceed the benefits under the circumstances. What is the 5 accommodation Plaintiff requests? Is it readily achievable?

6 IT IS SO ORDERED.
